

Decision no. 985 of 25th of June 2004 on the recognition of the Romanian Standards Association – ASRO as a national standardization body

Pursuant to the art.108 in the Constitution, republished, as well as to the art. 23 par. (1) in the Governmental Ordinance no. 39/1998 on the national standardization activity, approved with amendments and completions by the Law no. 355/2002,

The Government of Romania adopts the present Decision.

Art. 1

The Romanian Standards Association – ASRO with the headquarters in 1 Bucharest, 21-25 Mendeleev Street, is recognised as the national standardization body, as per the Governmental Ordinance no. 39/1998 on the national standardization activity, approved with amendments and completions by the Law no. 355-2002.

Art. 2

The Ministry of Economy and Commerce provides the surveillance of the Romanian Standards Association abiding by the conditions and requirements which are the basis of its recognition as a national standardization body.

- *** -

PRIME MINISTER

ADRIAN NĂSTASE

Countersigning:

State Minister, the Minister of Economy and Commerce

Dan Ioan Popescu

Published in the Official Journal no. 612 of 7th July 2004